

Rev. Letrice Weaver was born and raised in Washington, D.C., and attended Howard University's School of Business. She committed her life to the Lord Jesus Christ on October 22, 1989 and in May of 1996, she accepted her call into public ministry. Rev. Letrice was later licensed and ordained as one of the Associate Pastors at Cornerstone Peaceful Bible Baptist Church. She currently serves as the Ministry Leader of the Intercessory Prayer Ministry (P.O.W.E.R.) and as a Women's Sunday School Teacher. Rev. Letrice has written over 30 inspirational poems and was blessed to publish her first book in 2007, An Invitation From the King. She also serves as Assistant Principal of School Operations at Excellence Christian School.

Rev. Letrice loves God with all of her heart and desires to be an instrument that God can use to empower others to walk in God's plan for their lives. One of her deepest and most heartfelt desires is to see the people of God, especially women, set free from the bondages of fear, insecurity and low self-esteem, of which she is a living testimony.

Rev. Letrice knows firsthand that God has power to transform lives and that despite where you are or where you may have come from, God has destined us for greatness. One of her favorite scriptures is I Peter 2:9: "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light..."

Rev. Letrice is married to her husband, Todd, and they have two beautiful children, Letaria Renee and Todd Anthony, II.
