

Vanessa Davis received her Associates Degree of Science in Nursing from Hagerstown Community College in 2002. Vanessa is an entrepreneur in Leadership Development and Community building as well as an Inspirational speaker. Vanessa has a strong passion to see women set free in all areas of life.

Born and raised as a pastor's daughter in Gettysburg Pennsylvania, Vanessa met her own challenges in life by doing things her way. Now through the leading of the Holy Spirit and her own transparency, God uses her in an "out of the box" way to positively impact the lives of women for Christ.

Vanessa has been married to Ralphiel Davis for 17 years and they presently reside in Hagerstown, Maryland. They are members of the Brownsville Church of God in Fayetteville, PA and together they share seven amazing children, two beautiful granddaughters, and one precious new grandson.
