

A Bible teacher and inspirational speaker, Windy has been serving the Lord since age 26. Over the past 30+ years she has served as a Bible teacher, women's ministry leader, discipleship trainer, small group leader, and mentor. She has hosted intercessory prayer breakfasts and annual 'Ladies Night Out' teas. Windy speaks at churches, women's conferences, retreats and other events. She is deeply passionate for the transformation of lives through prayer and Biblical teaching. Her deep love for Jesus Christ radiates and shines through when she teaches the Word of God. Windy ministers from a life of transparency. Her teaching and the life she lives touches the hearts of people, challenging, encouraging, and inspiring them to love God deeply, walk in the power and anointing God has given them, and trust God to lead them into their destiny as they live "moment by moment now."

Windy is the founder of RAW (Reaching All Women), an organization designed to unleash the potential in every woman, helping her to identify her calling, empowering her to lead, and to walk in God's purpose for her life. She is a member of Women of Prayer International, sits on the board of Christian Family Mountain Retreat and Emotional Maturity Institute and Training. Windy is also the recipient of the Esther Award for Excellence in Service.

Windy and her husband, Jean-Pierre Mbakop, live in Hanover, PA with their three dogs, Nia, September, and Maxwell. They have two sons, Alton and Caesar.
